St. Catherine Tour from Dahab

St. Catherine's Monastery

Your Egypt day trips tour guide will pick you up at 7:00 am from your hotel in Dahab for one of the most inspiring Dahab day excursions. You will be transferred 140 km northwest to visit St. Catherine's Monastery, located between Mount St. Catherine and Mount Sinai, and considered the oldest active monastery in Christianity.

This Dahab day excursion affords you an opportunity to visit an Orthodox Greek monastery whose walls are filled with treasures of religious and historical interest. Among its highlights is the Museum of St. Catherine, which has priceless icons by Angelos, one of the most famous painters of the 15th century, and six masterpieces by Michael Damaskenos of the late 16th century from the Cretan School.

After exploring this extraordinary site, we return to Dahab, the spirit of "Flower Power City" of the Red Sea. Here, you can unwind and have lunch at one of the local eateries before heading back to your hotel.

The well-designed Dahab to St. Catherine's Monastery tour is among the highly sought-after trips from Dahab and brings a mixture of cultural heritage, history, and natural beauty.
