Itinerary

Day 1

Tour to the Valley of the Kings, Temple of Hatshepsut, Colossi of Memnon

The Hurghada day trip guide STR will greet you at your hotel early in the morning and take you on your journey. From this point, the road trip should be most relaxing, as you are treated to breathtaking views of the desert landscape. Upon reaching this sacred site in southern Upper Egypt, an Egyptologist guide will meet you for an educational experience that includes touching the key historical sites of ancient Egypt. An unforgettable day trip from Hurghada to Luxor with the perfect splashes of culture, history, and adventure.

Valley of the Kings

Start your tour in the Valley of the Kings, the royal tombs of the New Kingdom Pharaohs, which boast beautifully carved tombs with well-illustrated wall paintings and magical texts. Visit three out of the most well-preserved tombs, each of which demonstrates the culture and the southern beliefs of ancient Egypt.

Temple of Hatshepsut

Secondly, move to the breathtaking Temple of Hatshepsut, which is locally known as El Deir El Bahary. This very special temple is built in a terraced fashion and is dedicated to the great queen Hatshepsut, who ruled Egypt.

Colossi of Memnon

It is time for a photo stop at the considered ancient statues of the two Colossi of Memnon, or, according to their official name, the statues of Amenhotep III.

The Karnak Temple:

the Karnak Temple Complex, the largest temple complex ever created for worship.

Then, visit Sphinx Alley; enter the temple of Amon with the 134 giant standing columns, the sacred lake, and the obelisks. After all the wonderful and historical sites have been seen, your private driver will return you to Hurghada to end this great experience.
