Itinerary

Day

Day Trip to Giza Pyramids and Grand Museum

Your private tour starts from Alexandria Port, with our Egyptologist tour guide greeting you in an air-conditioned vehicle for a full Day of Giza's most famous landmarks:

Great Pyramids of Giza:

Your adventure starts at the Giza Plateau exploring the Great Pyramids of Giza, where the fabled Great Pyramid of Khufu stands, accompanied by the Pyramid of Khafre and the lesser Pyramid of Menkaure. Stand in awe as you take in the sheer scale and majesty of these ancient structures, which have stood for thousands of years as a testament to Egypt's architectural brilliance. You can also explore the Pyramids inside.

The Great Sphinx:

Stand amazed before the great Sphinx, an ancient statue that has the body of a lion and the face of a pharaoh, which is believed to represent the great Pharaoh Khafre. This monumental guardian has protected the pyramids for millennia, and our tour guide will share fascinating stories about its creation, significance, and the mysteries surrounding it.

Valley Temple:

continue your journey in the Giza Plateau: the Valley Temple, an interesting archaeological site once reserved for rituals, mummification processes, and other ceremonies. Visit this magnificent ancient temple and learn about its contribution to the process of burial of the pharaohs, as well as enjoy viewing the pyramids and the surrounding landscape.

Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM):

Post lunch, our guide will bring you the opportunity to tour the new museum of the Grand Egyptian Museum near the pyramids, which was set up to store the extremely heavy treasures of ancient Egypt and be an example of a modern museum. It houses one of the largest collections of statues, artifacts, and royal treasures from different Egyptian dynasties. Fantastic display of artifacts from the Old, Middle, and New Kingdoms, including colossal statues of powerful pharaohs, exquisite jewelry, and everyday objects that make ancient Egyptian life alive.
